CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN HAS IT.

Two Fires in Neighboring Towns—Candidates—Will Prohibited—Baptist Meetings—Will Ask For Bail.

Secured her Daughter's Tutor.

At Hartford, Ky., Mrs. Webster Case was held to answer to Circuit Court, under bond of $1,000 for securing young Kate Foreman, her daughter's tutor.

Will Ask For Bail.

T. W. Wootton, through his attorneys, has filed a petition and asked for a writ of habeas corpus, before Judge Jas. Breathitt, in order to secure bail. He has filed next Saturday Feb. 6 as the time for hearing the case on the application for bail. Mr. Wootton can give bond in any amount.

Baptist Circle Meetings.

The Seventh Circle of the Bethel Association of Baptists met at the Baptist church Saturday and a very entertaining program was carried out. The circle is composed of the Hopkinsville church and fourteen others in the northern part of the county. Other circle meetings were held at Locust Grove and Trenton on Saturday and Sunday.

Will Prohibit.

The will of John A. Lewis who died at Crofton Friday, was probated yesterday. The document directs that the house and lot in Crofton be given to his wife, Mrs. Sarah J. Lewis, and the remainder of his property is bequeathed to his children, O. A. West qualified as administrator and Messrs. L. R. Davis, C. M. Gray and T. J. Davis were appointed appraisers.

Hitted By a Mad Dog.

Jack Daws of the White Plains country, while en route home from Christian county Saturday afternoon, was bitten by a mad dog. The dog attacked Daws, biting him on the hand and finger. Mr. Daws had quite a fight with the dog and finally succeeded in drawing his knife from his pocket and cutting the canine's throat. He immediately went to Henderson where a mad stone was applied to the wounds. It adhered several times—Madisonville Mail.

Hugh Phelps Goes to Clarksville.

Mr. Hugh R. Phelps, the well known hotel man, left yesterday for Clarksville to assume the management of the Arlington Hotel. Mr. Phelps has been chief clerk of the Phoenix Hotel and Hotel Latham, in this city and manager of the Barret House, Henderson, and Hudd House, Owensboro, all good hotels, in which he acquired a wide and successful experience and a thorough knowledge of all the details of the hotel business. Mr. Phelps is a young man of life character and excellent business qualifications and in going to Clarksville takes with him the good wishes of many friends. He has been in this city for some months, since he returned from Owensboro.

Judge John Phelps.

The formal announcement of Judge John Phelps as a Democratic candidate for circuit judge in this district, appears in our columns to-day. Judge Phelps is the only candidate in Christian county will present for the nomination he seeks. He was a formidable candidate two years ago and will enter the contest with a strong following all over the district. Judge Phelps has frequently presided as pro tem judge and always with much credit to himself and satisfaction to the bar and litigants. He is one of the strongest members of the Hopkinsville bar, with a judicial mind, a ready store of legal knowledge and valuable experience coming from long and successful practice. Judge Phelps will undoubtedly be the leading candidate in the Murray convention, with flattering prospects of success.

J. T. Hanbery.

Judge J. T. Hanbery, judge of the Hopkinsville City Court, is announced to-day as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in this third judicial district. His claims are of course submitted to the action of the Democratic party, of which he is and has always been a loyal supporter. Judge Hanbery is a young man of fine promise in his profession and his rise has been rapid and steady since he entered upon the practice of the law four or five years ago. As city judge he has shown himself capable of making an able and acceptable officer. He is a speaker of force and eloquence and during the campaign last year was one of the most popular Democratic orators who canvassed Christian and Trigg counties. He is a fine mixer and agreeable gentleman and will prove to be a very formidable candidate for the office he is seeking.

Gasoline boats are getting plentiful in the Kentucky river.

MADISONVILLE HAS A FIRE.

Losses Aggregate $25,000 with $10,000 Insurance.

Madisonville, Ky., Jan. 26.—Madisonville was visited by a bad fire last night involving a loss of $25,000. The fire originated in the Opera House, after the "Uncle Josh Sprucey" Company had vacated after a performance.

The fire was checked at Whittinghill's store, owing to the brave efforts of the fire ladders and the splendid wall that separated the store from the Opera Block.

The fire entailed a loss of about $25,000 as follows:

Jernigan & Ray, loss on building proper, $8,000; loss on Opera House, $3,000.

J. W. Smith & Co., saloon fixtures and stock, $6,000.

Dunkerson & Thomson, stock of groceries, $3,500.

J. B. Waltrip & Son, stock of groceries, $3,500.

Townsend & Sons, confectioneries and household furniture, $1,000.

Insurance is as follows:

Jernigan & Ray, $5,000.

J. W. Smith & Co., $1,500.

Dunkerson & Thomson, $1,000.

J. B. Waltrip & Son, $1,400.

Townsend, $400.

Dr. Ed Hayes had his dental office upstairs and lost his entire outfit.

The Opera Block was built in 1882 and 1883 and the Opera House was opened in the spring of 1883.

Deaths at Crofton.

Crofton, Ky., Feb. 1.—Mr. John A. Lewis died last Friday morning with pneumonia; he was buried with Masonic honors Saturday evening at the Clark cemetery 3 miles from Crofton.

Mrs. Dr. J. B. Williams of Morton's Gap is visiting her father's family, A. B. Croft.

John Clark died last Thursday night with La Grippe; he was buried Saturday at St. Charles by the Masonic order of Exaltation and St. Charles.

Esq. G. H. Myers, who has been very ill, is slowly recovering and will soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Woodson of Paris, Tenn., are here on a visit.

Mr. G. W. Morgan, who has been confined to his bed for the past week is improving.

W. E. Gray has secured a school at Kirksmansville for this spring.

Judge V. C. Clark was taken sick last Friday night and is confined to his room and is very sick.

Prof. W. W. Arner commences his spring school to-day at the Academy.

North Dakota—H. C. Handbrough, Rep.

Washington—Geo. F. Turner, Pop.

South Carolina—Jos. H. Earle, Dem.

Idaho—Henry Heitfeld, Pop.

Deadlocks are still on in Oregon, South Dakota and Utah.

Will Vote on Feb. 10.

After a long contest the drys have won in the preliminary skirmish and a vote will be taken in Davies county on the question of prohibiting the sale of liquor in the entire county in quantities of less than five gallons. The vote will be taken on Feb. 19 and the registration of voters in Owensboro, who have been qualified since October will be on Feb. 13.

Judge Felaud, who acted as special judge in some of the litigation, says the opinion prevails in Owensboro that the county will go dry.

Church Hill Grange.

The following new officers of Church Hill Grange were installed at the last meeting.

J. W. Riley, Worthy Master.

Miss Carrie King, Librarian.

J. L. Causey, Business agent.

Dr. Rinehart, of Springfield, Ky., is trying the experiment of raising a prematurely-born child in an incubator. The infant is now fifteen days old and is growing.

Mrs. Caroline Hendricks made an argument before the Indiana Supreme Court, the first speech ever made by a woman lawyer before that tribunal.

DUN AND BRADSTREET.

Month of January Has Been one of Unusually Disappointing.

New York, Jan. 26.—R. G. Dun & Co. will say to-morrow in their weekly review of trade:

January has been a month of disappointment but of real gain. Nearly everybody has promised himself a lead of milk and honey after New Year's and the slow progress looks like a myth to men in such a state of mind. Moreover, there are multitudes throughout the country who have been taking large ventures in advance of or apart from their regular business, because they expected a rise in prices. But prices fall as yet to bring them profits. Wheat has declined severely, cotton has scarcely risen enough to pay brokerage; wool holds steady, woolen goods hardly changed in price, iron and its products decline, leather is sluggish and hides are lower; for some shoe manufacturers accept a shade in lower prices.

Failures for the week have been 531 in the United States against 432 last year, and 57 in Canada against 70 last year.

New York, Jan. 26.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say: There has been a falling off in general trade, owing to the heavy fall of snow and cold weather. There is an increase in distribution of heavy winter goods, but commercial travelers very generally report buyers are even more conservative than early in the month, and that the volume of trading in January, except in lines specified, is smaller than for years. Mercantile collections are interrupted and the improvement looks for in iron and steel is not in sight.

TWO MORE SENATORS.

These Populists Will Succeed Dubois and Squire.

Boise City, Idaho, January 26.—Henry Heitfeld, Populist, was to-day elected United States Senator to succeed Dubois. The decisive ballot was: Heitfeld, 33; Dubois, 30; T. F. Nelson, 1. Heitfeld got 14 Democratic votes and one Republican; Dubois 4 Democratic votes.

Heitfeld is a farmer, and represents Nez Perce county in the State Senate. His age is 38. His educational attainments are of a rudimentary character.

Olympia, Wash., January 26.—George F. Turner, of Spokane, was to-night nominated for United States Senator in a caucus of Populist and free silver Republicans. He received 54 votes. Judge Turner has been a Republican but at the late election he supported Bryan. He is considered one of the ablest lawyers in the state of Washington. From 1884 to 1888 he was Territory Governor. Within the last two years he has become largely interested in mines in northern Washington and British Columbia.

Assaulted Near Fulton.

Fulton, Ky., Jan. 26.—Miss Lydia Carver, 17 years old, daughter of Mr. John Carver, a prominent farmer who lives three miles north of Fulton, was choked into unconsciousness yesterday by a negro and outraged. Mr. Carver had gone to a neighbor's about a mile distant. Miss Carver went to the barn for eggs. Entering the building she was seized by a negro. Parties are out scouring the country.

Appoints His Brother As.

Russellville, Ky., Jan. 27.—John S. Rhea has appointed his brother, Mr. A. G. Rhea, his private secretary. Mr. Rhea is at present Teller in the Bank of Russellville, and has held the position for several years. He has been connected with the bank in various ways for eighteen years. He will resign his position in the bank at once. Mr. Rhea is one of the most popular young men in Russellville.

The Eighth Senate Nominations.

S. F. Lunken, president of the People's Bank, at Milan, committed suicide last week, taking morphine. Rankin was a prominent man in Milan, a religious man, superintendent of the Sunday school and a well thought of gentleman by all who knew him. It is said that financial trouble was the cause of his demise.—Fulton Guard.

The Lot Sale Friday.

Mr. R. M. Conways sale of lot in the John Young track on West Seventh street Friday, did not come up to expectations and the transfers were not made by Mr. Young. They will try it again when the weather gets better.

He Skinned the Milk.

Esq. M. B. King on Dec. 11 put up a lot of shots weighing 90 pounds to feed them on skinned milk from his creamery. He fed them milk twice a day and corn once a day and when they were weighed 46 days later they averaged 166 pounds, or a gain of nearly 14 pounds a day. Who can beat that?

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

PHILPINS—We are authorized to announce Judge John Philp as a candidate for circuit judge of the 7th judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Precinct convention at 7 p. m., Sunday, March 1st, 1897, at the residence of Mr. J. H. Smith, near the depot. April 1, District convention at Murray Springs.

HANBERRY—We are authorized to announce Judge J. T. Hanberry as a candidate for commonwealth's attorney in the third judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic convention April 1.

A negro barber named E. L. Penru, has been arrested at Pemberton charged with arson.

Mr. Bryan made his last bureau lecture at Glasgow last night. If he speaks any more it will be on his own hook.

Of course Idaho's new Senator returned his "Heil" it thanks when he was elected, though he is said to be a statesman who can't make a speech.

The Henderson Gleason was auctioned for $300 in a libel suit Saturday, based on an article published a year ago about a shooting scrape.

The worst thing yet brought to light about Lyman J. Gage, Carlisle's successor after March 4, is that he once vowed for Grover Cleveland.

John Clark Ridpath, the historian of Greenville, Ind., has accepted the position of editor-in-chief of the Arena magazine, and will at once go to Boston to assume his new duties.

Tom Platt, of New York, who resigned as Senator in 1881, has been vindicated, but his endorsement is a sort of 16 to 1 affair. That it took him 16 years to get one vindication.

Future Secretary of Treasury Gage, it is said is worth only $300,000. What he begins with does not concern the public as much as what he will quit with. How much will he be worth four years hence? That's the question.

Gov. Sadley has signed the prize fighting bill and Nevada now enjoys the distinction of being the only State where pugilistic mills are licensed. The Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight will start the ball in the early spring.

A young man named Lovell Whitesides was shot and killed at Franklin Ky., Saturday while under arrest. He had cut Bailey Eidson in a fight and the latter went off and armed himself and shot Whitesides while he was in charge of Eidson. Eidson's wounds may prove fatal.

Former Delegate Bob Walker, of 1892 memory, in declining to engage in a mutual kicking with the editor of this paper because both helped to give Cleveland his necessary 203 votes, this explains his position:

"However timely the suggestion may be, and however eminently proper such a performance would be, there are two very strong reasons for declining the meeting. In the first place the gold standard times have so materially reduced the thickness of our pants that a contest of the character suggested would likely be anything but amusing; and in the second place, when we call to mind the great advantage Joe. Meacham would have in point of leverage, we are convinced the meeting would be anything but mutual. However grievous the offense may be, brother, we are not prepared to accept capital punishment for the modest part we played in that memorial convention."

Your Vitality?

The essence of life is force. Every breath you breathe, every heart beat, every motion of your hand, takes force. The measure of force we call vitality. If this is lacking, there is loss of flesh, lack of restful power, a tendency to catch disease easily, especially a tendency to Consumption. For low vitality nothing is better than Scott's Emulsion. It supplies force by furnishing the nourishing, strengthening elements of food in an easily digested form, enriches the blood, and builds up the system. When ordinary food is of no avail, Scott's Emulsion will supply the body with all the vital elements of life.

Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00. All druggists.

If you will ask for it we will send you a book telling you all about Scott's Emulsion. Free.

Obituary.

(A tribute to the memory of Lucian Watson.)

The loved and loving son, brother and friend, died when boyhood's days were yet vivid in his memory. Like the tender rose that modestly buds and holds concealed in its graceful petals untold sweetness, thus he perished at the north wind's breath to wither and decay. So early in the morning of his life, just in the sunniest, happiest hour of all the day when the sun in tenderness bathes the forelands of distant hills and with its gentle rays kisses into life the blushing morning's glory, rich with dewy fragrance. When each little bird nestled near its mother's bosom cooed forth its little song of sweet contentment. O precious jewel and all creatures both great and small snuggled at the nectar which bubbled from nature's own dear heart, and at the dawning of manhood's golden day he fell asleep in the arms of death. Could we but fathom the abyss of darkness and see beyond the sombre shadows of night that curtain us from the awful mysteries of death, all would be plain to us, we would then know—rehearse—why death should claim for its own, the happiest, tenderest children of all the earth, but alas! and we cannot look into the pages of mystery and discern His everlasting will, but:

"For not yet waiting hearts that weep Good still await the deliverance."

Lucian's spirit was a tender one; no son could have been to parents more loving, no brother to brother more devoted.

So friend to friend more constant, and should every heart that had grasped his with warm and tender clasp bring to his grave a flower he would sleep beneath a mountain of flowers that would tower into the starry heavens to scatter seeds to those of love to God and Angels.

Life to him was more than a passing dream and he knew full well that the quality of life was death, yet to him life was sweet and each day was full of increasing joy, and so to all his friends, yet, no matter if our every mood is in joy with a joy and our every hour rich with love, no matter if every morning sun shall rise in the curtains of night, no matter if clouds be mist to sink with a tender blush into its golden bed beyond the twilight's purple hill, we must all become acquainted with death in its season.

His life was so short and so sweet, his little star shot into the heavens but to glitter, tremble and go out.

But a young life's goal seemed to him far distant in the horizon of the west and a moiety of his life seemed not nearly half spent when before night drew her death robes about her, coupled with awful mystery and dread like a summer's wind softly stealing over a sleeping valley she softly stole into his silent chamber and kissing down his eye-lids in peaceful slumber she sucked the honey of his breath and launched his ship in gentle peace upon that stormy sea that has never yet borne upon its bosom the image of a home-warm soul.

His little bark was wafted away upon the alternate waves of hope and despair and the soul that we loved has passed into the mists of silent ash, and yet to those bathed in the blood of the lowly Galilean, there is no death.

"There is no death, what seems so is transition, it is but a sublimation of the life ethereal."

He held aloft for awhile his little torch of life and struggled hard to increase its flame, but God in his wisdom bade him come into the fold and peacefully and without a murmur he obeyed, and now,

"Sweet soul thy work all done, Ours the heart-ache the toil and pain. Thine the joy and infinite gain. Thy slumber is sweet."

FRED PURCELL.

One of the Prison Commissioners at Frankfort asserts that the board will not dismiss Warden Hopper, of the Edinville penitentiary, as three of the five members will vote to retain Hopper, no matter what may be the substance of Inspector Lester's report.

Tom J. Landrum, late of Bray and Landrum has formed a partnership with L. S. Landrum and will continue in the clothing business in Louisville.

Front was felt as far South as Titusville, Fla. Only slight damage to the orange crop is reported, but the loss among the truck farmers will be severe.

Nervous

People often wonder why their nerves are so weak, why they get tired so easily, why they start at every slight but sudden sound, why they do not sleep naturally, why they have frequent headaches, indigestion and nervous

Dyspepsia

The explanation is simple. It is found in that impure blood which is continually feeding the nerves upon refuse instead of the elements of strength and vigor. In such condition food and nerve compounds stumpy, decay and do not cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla feeds the nerve pure, rich and blood, gives natural sleep, perfect digestion, is the true remedy for all nervous troubles.
